Pastor’s Corner:

An elderly couple sat holding hands on a bench in front of the assisted living home on Valentine’s Day. They reminisced about Valentine’s past. “Do you remember giving me that note with the hearts asking me to be your wife when we were in the second grade?” The husband responded, “Yes, I do, and it broke my heart when you threw it in the trash.” She replied, “You should have signed it instead of drawing that ugly picture of yourself on there so I would have known who it was from.” He said, “I sure am glad I kept on trying and never gave up on you.” He smiled as he remembered the card. The picture he had drawn was of his true love, not of himself. During forty-five years of marriage, he never told her. Now that is a portrait of true love. Sometimes we mistakenly look at others in a way that isn’t too flattering. Also, some portraits we paint of ourselves are not true to who we really are. God drew us, designed each of us fearfully and wonderfully. What we see as flaws and imperfections in this picture are to God beautiful attributes. Now that is a portrait of true love. God loves us with an everlasting love. God doesn’t give up on us, He keeps on pursuing us. Each time we reject Him it breaks His heart, but we never have to fear of losing His love. He will forgive even the ugliest secrets. (Jeremiah 31:3) Blessings, Pastor Vernon
