Pastor’s Corner:

Seen any good t-shirts lately? Did you know reading t-shirts can be entertaining as well as educational; however, most would agree that the entertainment purposes far outweigh the educational aspect of t-shirt reading. T-shirts were once worn only as undergarments. It wasn’t until the 20th century the t-shirts that we wear, read, and known as outer clothing, came to be.

It has been said you can read a book by its cover, if that is the case can we read people by their t-shirts? Some of the shirts are funny, and some frustrating. Some tell us what it is we should do to make the person’s life who is wearing the t-shirt better. Some give political and moral views. Some even proclaim a gospel message. A couple of funny ones I have seen recently: “I have been told hard work never hurts anyone, but I’m not taking any chances.” And “I was once schizophrenic but now we are all better.” Both of those made me smile, so I believe those two t-shirts served their purpose well.

As I consider all the choices one has when choosing a t-shirt to serve as a covering with a message to be presented to the world, I wonder if God could choose one t-shirt for each of us to wear. What message would He want to be displayed? I think God’s words in His Word are clear as to what He wants us to say to the world. God’s message is a message of love, hope, and peace to all who believe. What is the best way to display that message? No, it’s not by wearing t-shirts. We must live our lives in a way that all see those things in us. The message we pass on is not to be for entertainment or even educational purposes. The purpose of our message must be to pass on the Message of Jesus who loves all, inside and out, at all times.

Blessings, Pastor Vernon
