Pastor’s Corner:

Psalm 95:1-6 invites us to enter the presence of the Lord with thanksgiving and praise. How do you feel this morning as you approach the throne of God? Are you burdened by the cares of life, and do you feel distant from God? The psalmist calls us to come before the Lord with joyful hearts, acknowledging the greatness of our Creator. As we approach God, we are reminded of His sovereignty and the significance of bowing down in worship.

In Psalm 100:2, we are encouraged to "come before Him with joyful songs." This reinforces the idea that our approach to God should be marked by joy and celebration. Isaiah 55:6 instructs us to "seek the Lord while he may be found; call on him while he is near." The urgency in this verse emphasizes the importance of not delaying our encounter with Him.

And lastly, James 4:8 encourages us to "draw near to God, and he will draw near to you." This reciprocal relationship highlights the intimacy we can experience with God when we intentionally come unto Him. As we reflect on these verses, may our hearts be stirred to approach God eagerly, knowing that in His presence, we find true joy, peace, and fulfillment. Let us heed the call of Psalm 95, coming together to worship the Lord with reverence and gratitude.

Blessings, Pastor Vernon
